LOCAL PARAGRAPHS PICKED UP
HERE, THERE AND EVERYWHERE

Mrs. G. C. Johnson is visiting relatives in Darlington.
Col. Knox Livingston was here on professional business Monday.
Delton Wright, of Clio, was among the visitors in the city Monday.

Mr. John Pate of Bennettsville was in the city Monday exhibiting automobiles.

Report on the grinned up to be issued on

Henry Bennett of Clio came over Monday in a Brush run-about for which he is agent in Marlboro county.

Henry Lane, a prominent attorney of the Reidsville, (N. C.) Bar, was the guest Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Manning.

Mr. E. T. Elliott has shipped his roan pacer, "Sir Henry," to Richmond where he will enter the Virginia circuit.

The Herald is installing a new gasolene engine this week. It is one of the famous "Stovers" for which Mr S. J. Salmon is agent in this territory.

Miss Annie Thompson, a trained nurse from the Florence Infirmary who has been with Mrs. W. A. Blizzard, returned home Saturday. Mrs. Blizzard, who has been quite ill, is very much improved.

Several important news items of local interest that were inadvertently omitted from the last issue of The Herald, are printed in this week's issue. Among them were the "pounding" at the Presbyterian Manse and the Buic-Sessions marriage.

The special which was received in Dillon Saturday afternoon by the News and Courier's local correspondent, announcing the acquittal of Farmer by the Richland jury, was a great surprise. The public was looking for a verdict of guilty after having read the testimony of former director Wylie.

Look for the Blue X on the front margin of your Paper. It means that your subscription is due.

Rev Dr Buckner will preach his introductory sermon at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday night and it is understood that this service will take the place of the Union service postponed from last Sunday night. The pastors of the Methodist and Baptist Churches will take part in the service, and with their congregations, extend a welcome to their new pastor.

We return thanks to those of our subscribers who responded so promptly to the blue "X" mark on the margins of their papers last week. We are continuing the plan this week and if you see the blue "X" mark on the front margin of your paper it means that your subscription is due. You can remit by money order, check or registered letter. If you do not know how much your indebtedness is drop us a card and we will send you a statement. However, we should be glad for you to call in person as we are always glad to meet our subscribers, especially those we do not see quite so often.

The Dillon Hardware Co. were so well pleased with the sales from their week's exhibition of Mallea-Ranges that they have secured the services of Mr. Mcdecett, the travelling representative of the company, and will have another exhibition from Oct. 4th. to 9th. Mr. Modcett, who is in Marion, will return to Dillon next Monday and the exhibition will continue until the Saturday following. Their sales during the exhibit last week were very large, every range they had in stock being sold.

There will be a convocation of Dillon Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, at 8 o'clock next Monday evening. The members of the chapter are requested to be present.

MARRIED.
At four o'clock P. M., on Sept. 19th., at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. R. B. McEachern of Hamer, S. C., Miss Julia Buie was married to Mr. L. T. Sessions of Latta, S. C., Rev. Dr. A. G. Buckner officiating.

Besides the family of Mr. McEachern, a few special friends of the parties were present. The bride is a daughter of Archie Buie, deceased, in his day so well and favorably known in his community, and the daughter is a most estimable lady, with a host of friends wherever she is known in North and South Carolina.

The groom is a well-known citizen who has a good home and runs a cash store in Latta. He is a devout christian gentleman and a ruling elder of the Presbyterian church.

Immediately after the marriage the happy couple left for their home in Latta followed by the hearty good wishes of all.
